AMERICAN AIRMAN HOPS OVER NORTH POLE

CAPT. WILKINS FLIES ACROSS 'TOP OF WORLD,' RADIO REPORTS

Yankee Aviator Lands at Spitzbergen, Messages Say.

STOPS ON ISLAND

Polar Party Jumped From Point Barrow, Alaska.

LONDON, April 21.—Capt. George H. Wilkins, American aviator, has flown over the North Pole and across the "top of the world," according to an exchange telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen this afternoon quoting two radiograms.

Both radiograms were from Svalbard (Spitzbergen) where, they stated, Wilkins landed today.

According to these messages Wilkins and his companions flew from Point Barrow, Alaska, to Doedmansoeia, an uninhabited island, in the Arctic, where they were detained for five days by bad weather. After being released they flew to Svalbard.

Von Huenefeld's Poetry.
Mr. Araki From Tokio.
Mr. Ochs Celebrates.
A Changing World.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
[The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review.]

THE three fliers, two Germans, one Irish, will stick together, and fly on to New York together. Fitzmaurice had no idea of accepting a welcome ahead of the fliers.

Baron von Huenefeld, who flamed the Bremen trip, says that part of the time, flying through fog, he wrote poetry, and part of the time wondered what was going to happen.

Von Huenefeld has been nominated for the German parliament and national pride will probably elect him in spite of his friendly attitude toward the ex-Kaiser.

WORTHY of your polite attention is Mr. Tokichi Araki from Tokio. He jumped out of an airplane on Long Island at 12 minutes to 5 Thursday morning, on his way in a race around the world, for the Japanese newspaper, Asahi.

Araki, by airplane, automobile, fast trains and boats, expects to go around the world in 34 days. When Jules Verne suggested a trip in 50 days, that was thought preposterous.

ADOLPH S. OCHS, owner of the New York Times, celebrates his fiftieth year as a newspaper publisher. That publishing career, begun in Chattanooga 50 years ago, has agreed with Mr. Ochs. Friends that recently saw him climbing hills on the Pacific Coast observed no change in him in the last 20 years. May he continue publishing 50 years more and then go to live in Pasadena permanently.

THE Lutheran church received 5,000 suggestions in a national contest for an advertising slogan suited to the teachings of that church. The judges adopted this: "A changeless Christ for a changing world."

FORTUNATELY the changing world changes its ideas of Christ and His teachings. It no longer burns witches in His name, or tortures those who choose to think as they please religiously.

DIABETIC COMA EXACTS LIFE OF SCHOOL GIRL

Evelyn Amos, 14, Freshman, Dies Suddenly.

ILL FIVE HOURS Student Stricken as She Leaves High School Chapel.

Stricken with diabetic coma as she was leaving the high school chapel following an assembly period at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Miss Evelyn Amos, 14, member of the freshman class and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Amos, 913 Fairview street, died in the City hospital five hours later.

The assembly hour of the four high school classes had just been completed and students were returning to their class rooms when the girl was taken ill. Believing that she had fainted teachers carried her to the high school rest room where Miss Esther Neal, school nurse, endeavored to revive her.

Drs. John Fraser and D. M. McCutcheon were called, and the girl was taken to the hospital, where she succumbed at 7 o'clock.

Physicians said today that the disease causing the girl's death is rare. A few minutes before she was taken ill Miss Amos remarked to another student that she was warm and threw back the collar of her coat. Her parents said that she had been in good health.

The deceased is survived by her parents and two brothers, Oris and Harold.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Amos home at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in charge of Rev. Alfred Walls, Steubenville, formerly of this city, and Rev. R. C. Ball, pastor of the Anderson Methodist Episcopal church. Burial will be made in Spring Grove cemetery.

Friends may view the body Sunday or Monday.

Campaign Activities, Including Speeches, in Presidential Preference Battle, Will be Suspended Tonight.

VOTERS GO TO POLLS TUESDAY

Republicans and Democrats Will Name Delegates to Attend National and State Conventions.

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—With leaders on both sides of the Willis Hoover contest confident of victory, the Ohio presidential preference primary campaign was drawing to a close today.

Major campaign activities, including speeches, will end tonight.

Ohioans at the polls next Tuesday will select the delegations which will represent the Buckeye state this summer at the Democratic and Republican national conventions at Houston, Texas, and Kansas City, Mo., respectively; will register their preferences for presidential and vice presidential candidates, and will elect delegations to the Republican and Democratic state conventions to be held in this city within the next few months.

Democrats Unopposed.

Aside from a few isolated exceptions in some congressional districts, the Democratic candidates for delegates and alternates to the Houston convention, as approved by the Democratic state organization, are unopposed. In all cases, the organization candidates defeated former U. S. Senator Atlee Pomerene, Cleveland, as their first choice and George White, Marietta, former Democratic national committeeman from Ohio, as their second choice, for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The Democrats will elect 52 delegates, including eight delegates-at-large and 44 congressional district delegates, two from each district, and 52 alternates.

Although the Democratic presidential preference ballot is blank names of presidential and vice presidential choices are expected to be written on that ballot by many Democrats.

Republican Ballot.

The Republican presidential preference ballot contains the names of the late Senator Willis, Secretary of Commerce Hoover, and Attorney Olin J. Ross, Columbus, as presidential candidates. The space for vice-presidential candidates is blank.

Republican voters will elect 51 delegates and the same number of alternates to go to Kansas City. This delegation will include seven delegates-at-large and 44 congressional district delegates.

Major interest during the campaign now ending centered in the contest between the 102 Willis candidates for delegates and alternates and the 102 Hoover candidates for election next Tuesday.

"NOT GUILTY," JURY'S VERDICT

Harry F. Sinclair.

WEALTHY MAN ABSOLVED IN TEAPOT DOME OIL SCANDAL

Government's Second Failure to Secure Conviction.

BRIBERY CHARGED

Fall, Indicted With Millionaire, Too Ill to Stand Trial.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—A "jury of peers" today absolved Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire oil man, of the government's charges of criminal conspiracy arising from his leasing of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserves. Under Two Jail Sentences.

Today's "not guilty" verdict marked the government's second failure to secure a criminal conviction in the oil scandals, former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall and E. L. Doheny, California oil magnate, having been acquitted in 1926.

Sinclair was charged with having given former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall a $233,000 bribe to secure the oil lease. Fall, who was indicted with him, was too ill to stand trial.

The oil man already is under two jail sentences as a result of his part in the oil scandals of 1923. His refusal to answer questions of the senate investigating committee netted him three months for contempt and his action in hiring the Burns detective agency to spy on the jury that sat in the first Teapot Dome conspiracy trial last October got him another six months for criminal contempt. Last October's trial ended in a mistrial when the court learned of the jury surveillance.

Defense Lawyers Happy.

As the verdict was rendered Judge Wright, defense counsel, reached up and argued Sinclair, while Martin Littleton and George Hoover, his other two attorneys, grasped his hand.

Mrs. Sinclair and Sinclair's mother had waited for the verdict in the corridor. When the news was broken to them Mrs. Sinclair broke down and sobbed violently on the shoulder of her mother.

Sinclair left the court room to join his wife and mother.

They embraced, and with the two women, still crying, walked out of the court.

"I am not surprised but I am very happy," said Sinclair. He plans to leave immediately for New York.

Frank Hogan, attorney who brought the acquittal of E. L. Doheny on similar charges, was one of the first to congratulate Sinclair.

Others of his friends in the court gathered around him and he held an impromptu reception.

Just before the jury came in, Justice Jennings Bailey announced that he would not countenance any demonstration, promising to punish any one who attempted one.

Verdict Surprises Senators.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Sinclair acquittal verdict surprised the senators who have been instrumental in unearthing the oil scandals.

Senator Nye (R) of North Dakota, chairman of the Teapot Dome committee, said:

"There is more evidence that it is quite impossible to convict a millionaire in this country of ours. By the eternal Gods!"

Senator Walsh (D) of Montana sat silent as he was informed of the verdict.

British Coast Fishing Ruined By Oil Pollution

PORTSMOUTH, Eng. — Charging that "oil pollution" and the constant maneuvers of trawlers near the shore are ruining the fishing along the southern coast of England, sea anglers of this district are up in arms and are contemplating stringent measures to insure a preservation of the sport.

All along the coast, the anglers are complaining that these two factors are ruining the fishing and spoiling the coast as a holiday attraction for visitors.

The anglers are urging that the responsible authorities should take immediate action to prevent trawlers from operating inshore at night, and that the whole question of oil pollution should be investigated.

French Women Give No Heed to Rules On Jay-Walking

PARIS. — You can lead a Parisian girl on the dance floor but just try to teach her how to cross the street. Every gendarme of Paris is willing to aver that it can't be done.

Parisian police authorities are obliging if anything. They put in force a code for pedestrians and then established a school for "jaywalkers." Mademoiselles went proudly to the bottom of the class. A bee-line is the shortest distance between two points and when we are going somewhere we take the quickest route," they said.

Gendarmes expostulate, threaten and reprimand. To each scolding the Parisiennes reply: "Zut" which is equivalent to "chase yourself," or "I can't be bothered." The Parisienne has ruled the boulevards for many years and she still rules them.

German Deserter Raps Conditions In Foreign Legion

ABERDEEN. — "The brutal treatment, bad food and unbearable conditions were more than I could bear," Fritz Stinz, a 21-year-old German declared upon his arrival here after his escape from the French Foreign Legion.

Stinz, who was sent back to his native land, said that he made his escape from Suisse, North Africa, where he had been stationed, by obtaining a suit of civilian clothes. While waiting for a vessel on the African coast, he was recognized, and an Arab attempted to capture him. Stinz said, but he struck the man unconscious and made a second getaway.

Stinz arrived here as a stowaway aboard the steamer Portkerry.

New Forestry Plan For California Hills Under Eddy Fund

PLACERVILLE, Cal., April 19.—In a quiet way work is being done here that may find its fruition on tree-clad hillsides throughout the nation.

Established by James G. Eddy, of Everett, Wash., a western lumberman who has given a fortune to research work from which he may never hope to profit personally, the Eddy Tree Breeding Station, Inc., is seeking to produce a tree that will grow faster and produce better lumber than any current species.

Eddy set aside $200,000 as a fund to carry on the work and appointed two young graduates of the forestry division, University of California, to take charge and "grow up with the trees."

Pouring of Concrete on Liverpool Township Section Awaits Arrival of Road Scraper.

LISBON, April 21.—Pouring concrete on two sections of the East Liverpool-Youngstown road will begin within the next 10 days, it was announced today by the county commissioners.

Contract for surfacing of the southern section in Liverpool township, awarded to the Allison-Harris company, of East Liverpool, will be delayed until the arrival of a new scraper. As soon as this machine is placed on the job, side forms will be erected. This section begins at the intersection of West Ninth street and Dresden avenue, East Liverpool, and extends northward to connect with the present brick road.

Mellert & Weidner of Medina, who have the contract for the surfacing of the Williamsport section, have already placed several hundred feet of forms. Concrete will be poured on this section probably Monday.

The state highway department will make some improvement on the brick section of the road in Liverpool township later this year, so that many sharp curves will be eliminated. Considerable grading was done on these curves last year.

Surfacing of the Liverpool township section is expected to be finished on or before July 4. With this contract completed, there will be a low grade road out of East Liverpool to connect with the Lincoln highway at Apple's Corner.

Grading of the Homeworth and the Moultrie roads will also begin within the next 10 days.

Considerable surfacing probably will be done on the East Liverpool-East Palestine road this year. Bids for this job are expected to be opened in May by the state highway department.

EX-MAIL CLERK NOW FINANCIER

LISBON, April 21.—Grant Whistler, the first mail clerk to be employed on the old Pittsburgh, Marion & Chicago railroad, now known as the Pittsburgh, Lisbon & Western road, operating between Lisbon and New Gallilee is now engaged in the financial business in Cleveland.

"When I went to Lisbon to take the first mail run, I roomed and boarded at the old Hostetter House," Whistler said today.

"After I came in from the first run I told Mr. Hostetter I did not want to be introduced to any one—I wanted to study." Well, you may believe it or not, but I at that time did not know a dozen people in Lisbon. After I completed my postal studies, I met many folks, and a better crowd was not to be found anywhere.

"I am planning to visit Lisbon this summer just to meet these old time friends."

Voting Place Changed.

LISBON, April 21.—Owing to the inability of the Butler township trustees to secure a suitable place to hold elections, the north voting precinct in that township has been changed to Damascus. Electors will cast their ballots there on Tuesday, April 24.

Famous Actress

Worked as Boy on Ship During War

LONDON.—Nancy Price, famous actress, worked on a drifter for six months during the war, disguised as a boy, it is now revealed.

Trained from girlhood to understand the sea and its ways, Miss Price is a skilled yachtswoman. When war broke out she was determined to use her experience in the service of her country.

Without telling any one of her intentions, she cut off her hair, assumed male attire and took employment as a ship's boy on a drifter.

It is a remarkable fact that for six months she was able to carry out her job without any one on the drifter, except the skipper, realizing she was a girl.

She took her turn at the wheel, stood her watch and did the cooking.

New Madrid Arenas To Have Seats for 50,000 Persons

MADRID.—Fifty-one thousand citizens of this city will be able to attend their favorite sport—bullfights, every Sunday, as soon as the new arena has been completed, on which laborers have been actively at work for the past two years. This new arena, the largest to ever have been built in Spain's capital, will hold twenty-six thousand spectators. Another arena, at the other end of Madrid, will also be completed this year, and will have a seating capacity of twelve thousand persons. Thus these two, together with Madrid's old arena which holds thirteen thousand people, will give the opportunity to a greater number of people to attend the famous Spanish diversions on the same afternoon than in any other city in the country.

High Society Fads and Foibles Enigma To Onlookers In New York

By SHIRLEY KIRKE
International Illustrated News Staff Correspondent

SOcial luminaries high in the rating of Park Avenue's best, are permitting their names and photographs to be used for advertising.

Cigarettes, mattresses, furniture, automobiles, everything, in fact, from flesh reducers and hair restorers to patent lighters and refrigerators, blaze forth in advertisements signed by Social Register four-syllable names.

This recent fad, though a profitable one to the donors of the signatures, was created by no less a personage than Her Majesty, Queen Marie of Roumania.

Duchesses, Countesses, Viscountesses, are listed by name-gathering concerns along with plain titles of "Mrs." of our own shores, and sold to advertisers for their use.

When a new night club parts its velvet portieres on the opening performance, the choicest tables are occupied by society ladies whose names are known across the continent. And—they are there on "invitation of the management."

No check greets them at the end of the evening. Only the use of their names in publicity is requested in return for food, music, lights and show.

New York stores say they could sell gowns cheaper if the wealthy women would pay more promptly.

A prominent New Yorker bought and charged an imported black net

MRS. REGINALD C. VANDERBILT. MRS. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT (International Newsreel) evening gown with a smashing jade green bow.

Next day the gown came back because "it wouldn't do." It was put on the marked down rack because it had been worn, and had the woman been less important a protest would have been made.

A western woman, recently rich and new to New York society ways, summed up the situation as follows:

"The Chinese may be a strange people, but New York society women are far funnier."

"I moved there from the West," she related, "and met the women with top-notch names."

"At bridge parties they would say very casually: 'Dear, lend me $3,000.' (Sometimes it was $5,000.) And they never mentioned the money again. I suppose it would be vulgar."

How to get it back? That is what the western woman would like to know.

Perhaps some puzzle expert can tell her how to use cross words that won't spell social ruin.

HUNDREDS DEAD, 500,000 HOMELESS IN EARTHQUAKE

FAMINE FACES BULGARIA, SAYS VIENNA REPORT

One City Devastated; Five Villages are Wiped Out.

RECOVER BODIES

Communication Cut Off; People are Panic-stricken.

LONDON, April 21.—Hundreds are believed dead, half a million persons are homeless and Bulgaria is faced today with a nation-wide famine following a new series of earthquakes, according to Vienna dispatches to the Daily Express.

Philippopolis where fifteen were killed Wednesday night when the city was partially destroyed, is now completely devastated. Five villages also have been wiped out by the new series of shocks.

Philippopolis was a city with a population of about 100,000. Today every building in the city was a mass of ruins, and 120 bodies have been recovered.

150 Shocks Since Wednesday. The earthquakes have disrupted communications throughout the country. It has been impossible, therefore, to estimate the number of victims in the villages of Manolivi, Katalnica, Karaflovo, Slatovo and Scovelovo, which were also completely wiped out.

The quakes are described as the most terrible in the history of Europe. The entire country is panic-stricken. Thousands, starved and nearly crazed with fear, are wandering about the countryside dazedly. Many go about shrieking that the end of the world has come.

Since Wednesday, 150 shocks have been felt. The heaviest of these occurred yesterday and caused far greater damage and many more casualties than the quake of last Saturday and Wednesday night, when the dead totaled 51, the injured 300, and the property damage exceeded $5,000,000.

Crowds Run to and Fro. According to an eye-witness at Sofia, the capital of the country, a strange thunder, which seemed to come from the bottom of the earth, accompanied by a rattling whistle which rent the air, preceded the first serious shock.

"The sound died down," the eye-witness said, "when the buildings swayed and walls came down on all sides, showering bricks on men, women and children who had come to the street in terror."

"After the second shock, the panic was indescribable. The maddened crowds ran to and fro in terror. Fires started everywhere and soon everything seemed ablaze."

EIGHT ARE DEAD IN FILM BLAST

DENVER, April 21.—"The most flagrant case of criminal negligence I have ever seen" was what District Attorney Joel E. Stone said today of the disastrous explosion and fire at the Alexander Film Co., near here yesterday that took eight lives and caused $20,000 property loss.

One man is in immediate danger at the Denver general hospital and several others among the thirteen more or less burned are in a serious condition. Four of the dead are women and one is a small boy.

which is to be kept in first class condition. Adjoining the L shaped flying field is a six-acre tract which has been set aside for automobile parking. The ground in the parking area is of sandstone composition, making it suitable in winter as well as summer. The site is on a plateau, 1,250 feet above sea level. About one and one-half miles to the west is "Round Knob," with an elevation of 1,435 feet above sea-level, and the second highest point in Ohio.

According to the plans of the Chamber's committee, a beacon light will be erected on top of "Round Knob" to guide night flyers to the new landing field. High tension lines from the Penn-Ohio generating plant at Toronto pass over "Round Knob" and this light, it is pointed out, could be installed with little expense.

Name of City on Building. The new field is almost an equal distance from the East Liverpool and Wellsville postoffices, the differences being less than a half mile by air line. The site has been inspected by Debar Peat, manager of Bettis Field, near McKeesport, and by experienced fliers who have expressed the opinion that it will make an ideal landing point.

The field will be available to local persons who may purchase planes. Sufficient ground adjoins the site to permit the erection of hangars and to make other improvements as airplane flying becomes more advanced. Establishment of a flying school at this point is proposed by private interests. Erection of a gasoline station is also under consideration.

The city of "East Liverpool" is marked from the roof of the Crook building, in Fifth street to guide fliers. The Lisbon Kiwanis club has made arrangements to mark the county seat town from the roof of the new Masonic temple, Lincoln way.

East Liverpool will probably be placed in the route of the mail plane from Pittsburgh to Cleveland after the opening of the field. The plane's course at present is just north of the city, the craft traveling west about 2:20 p. m. daily and returning about an hour later.

BOOZERS BANNED ON AIR VOYAGES

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Prohibition was extended to the air today.

Under new regulations issued by the air branch of the commerce department, licensed commercial pilots are not allowed to take up passengers under the influence of liquor or drugs.

Applicants must have 200 hours in the air, instead of 50, to obtain commercial pilot licenses, and aerobatics at less than 1,500 feet are prohibited.

CAR WRECKED BY EXPLOSION

Dynamite Also Damages Two Houses in Marion.

MARION, O., April 21.—Police today were seeking a motive for an explosion which early today completely wrecked an automobile owned by Marie Weston, tore several large holes in two houses between which the car had been parked and broke all of the windows in both houses. Dynamite caused the blast police say.

Weston parked the car between the houses last night. About 1:30 o'clock this morning his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McNeal, with whom he makes his home, were thrown from their beds by an explosion which rocked the house. Firemen extinguished the resulting blaze.

Part of the steel work of the car was blown through the wall of an adjoining vacant house, while other parts were tossed into the branches of nearby trees. Police have been unable to discover a motive, and Weston, a meat cutter, says he knows of no enemies who would have set the explosives.

Primary election next Tuesday. If elected Willis delegates will go to the Kansas City convention "to use every effort to bring about the nomination of the best man qualified for the presidency," Mrs. Joseph said.

Women, who are not registered, were urged to qualify either today or Monday. Electors, who fail to vote at the primary election must vote for "another's choice of candidates" at the election, Mrs. Joseph said.

The largest of the precinct meetings was held at the home of Mrs. Janet Chetwynd, West Sixth street, according to reports received by Mrs. Joseph today. Mrs. Ha Marshall Cronin, chairlady of the Columbiana County Women's Republican club gave five-minute talks at several of the meetings.

MOVE TO DRAFT COOLIDGE GETS FRESH IMPETUS

Governor Smith's Gains Prompt G. O. P. Demand.

HOOVER IS HIT Oklahoma, Claimed by Secretary, Favors President.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Due primarily to the sharp advance in Governor Smith's presidential stock within the last two weeks, the movement to draft President Coolidge as the Republican nominee has gained ground rapidly at the expense of the candidacy of Herbert Hoover, his secretary of commerce, it was declared here yesterday by certain Republican national leaders.

At no time since President Coolidge issued his December statement to head off the plan to renominate him, in the face of his expressed choice not to run, have the draft proponents been more confident. Correspondence with reliable political leaders in different parts of the country was shown to justify this confidence.

The leaders report unmistakable evidence of draft sentiment in states where it was not expected—for instance, Oklahoma, which has been claimed for Secretary Hoover after Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas.

Three reasons were cited to account for the draft movement's headway which, it was said, has been pronounced since the middle of last week. In the view of these leaders, the reasons are:

1.—The materialization of delegate strength unclaimed for Governor Smith in territory hitherto hostile to him, leading to a conviction in the Republican high council that he will be nominated.

2.—Failure of the Hoover forces to produce the delegate strength claimed in some territory.

3.—The fact that claims made on behalf of the draft movement have "stood up" in states which have elected delegates.

Not until a little more than a week ago, according to leaders seen yesterday, was it believed in high Republican circles in Washington that the Democrats were actually going to nominate Governor Smith.

Reports from New York that the governor had all but pocketed the delegates from first one state and then another, were taken with a grain of salt, and were contradicted in many cases by members of congress from the states mentioned. But primaries and conventions have been held in several of these states, and Governor Smith is seen prancing off with Iowa's 26 delegates, Oklahoma's 20; 57 of the 58 in Illinois; Washington state's 14, and so on, one after another, with no misfires yet.

Believe Coolidge Strongest. The telegraph and telephone wires have been buzzing as a result. Many Republicans formerly skeptical to Governor Smith's chance at Houston have changed their minds. They want to know who would be most likely to stop Governor Smith in New York state, Massachusetts and New Jersey, it is said. Charles D. Hilles, Republican national committeeman for New York and the New York state organization are on record as believing President Coolidge the strongest candidate the Republican could nominate. Certain New York leaders have confided doubts as to Secretary Hoover's ability to do it.

Mr. Hoover's failure to capture the entire Colorado delegation, which had been claimed for him; the decision there not to instruct for him, and the fact, according to draft promoters, that the Hoover movement has not swelled to the proportions that had been predicted, are said to have caused many who were poised to jump in to the Hoover camp to turn to the "back to Coolidge" movement.

Moreover, it is explained, extravagant claims made by the Hoover managers have reacted against the candidate when the claims did not materialize.

See Willis Forces' Victory. In Ohio, since Senator Willis' death, the situation has completely changed and to all political observers it now looks as if the Willis forces will sweep the state, at least all districts outside of Cleveland, Cincinnati and Toledo, which are controlled by the Republican organizations favorable to Secretary Hoover.

The Willis delegates will go to Kansas City uninstructed and will join in the movement to draft Calvin Coolidge.

Meanwhile, the draft movement has boomed right along according to schedule, its promoters maintain. Delaware's nine were claimed. With in the week the whole nine were produced, unpledged, as planned. Connecticut's 17 were claimed, unpledged. They were delivered to the draft movement Wednesday, as promised. Vermont's 11 were promised for the draft plan, although Hoover headquarters claimed them all.

On top of the statement of Earl S. Kinsley, Vermont national committeeman, that it would be a Coolidge delegation, has come a point blank undisputed statement from Porter H. Dale, Vermont's senior United States senator, saying the granite state's delegation would vote en bloc for President Coolidge, her native son.

Developments of Week. These are but the developments of a week, according to the leaders seen yesterday, who privately suggested watching the action of certain other states where draft sentiment has not been proclaimed. They intimated that several New York members of congress who have inclined to Secretary Hoover have within the week un-

He is playing golf, not noticing the fight.

KING GEORGE won his first race of the season Thursday, the Brandon Handicap. The king's horse, Scuttle, by Captain Cattle, out of Stained Glass, carried a good deal of the loyal British money bet upon him.

IF Heeneys beats Tunney in the coming fight, Dempsey will return and fight Heeneys. If Dempsey wins, perhaps Jeffries and Willard will return to fight him.

But Heeneys probably won't beat Tunney. Even in prize fighting, thinking counts. Tunney is the better thinker, and, besides, Tunney's defeat would be unprofitable for the prize fight "insiders."

CHARLEY BIRGER, Illinois gang leader and killer, hanged Thursday, told Rabbi Mazur he had twice tried to kill himself since his conviction. Birger hired another killer to work for him, "paying $50 for each shot that entered the body of the man picked for duty." The gangster's efforts to kill himself may have been due to fear that he would be unable to keep his nerve facing the hangman.

DEFER HOP FOR BREMEN HAVEN; PILOT IS ILL

Floyd Bennett is Suffering From High Fever.

SCHILLER ON JOB

Von Huenefeld and Koehl Disappointed Over Delay.

LAKE ST. AGNES, Que., April 21.—Owing to the illness of the aviators, the trimotored Ford plane carrying replacement parts to Greenly Island for the Bremen will not hop off here until tomorrow. Floyd Bennett was ill upon the plane's arrival here and Charles "Duke" Schiller was selected to take his place. The plane was to have left at 8:30 this morning, but Bert Balchen, the pilot, contracted a bad cold and the hop was postponed until tomorrow morning at 5:30. If Bennett is able he will accompany Balchen tomorrow instead of Schiller.

MURRAY, BAY, Que., April 21.—Owing to the illness of Floyd Bennett, one of the pilots, the hop-off of the Ford relief plane from Lake St. Agnes for Greenly Island was postponed until 8:30 a. m. today.

The nature of Bennett's illness was not disclosed but it was said that he was suffering from high fever. A doctor was dispatched from here for the Trans-Continental Airways company base at Lake St. Agnes.

"Duke" Schiller will take Bennett's place as co-pilot of the plane with Bert Balchen, it was announced. Schiller, the first man to reach the fliers at Greenly Island by air, was selected because of his familiarity with the region between Lake St. Agnes and Greenly Island.

Cold at Greenly Island. Copyright, 1920, by International News Service.

GREENLY ISLAND, April 21.—(By airplane to Seven Islands, Que., and Murray Bay, and by land wire to New York)—Baron Von Huenefeld and Capt. Herman Koehl were deeply disappointed today over the reported delay of the trimotored Ford monoplane with replacement parts for the Bremen.

The relief plane will bring the propeller of the sister Junkers ship F-13, landing gear and fuel. Also, it will carry a large kit of tools as facilities here are limited.

The weather here is cold and windy, but the Baron and Capt. Koehl were hopeful that it would not grow any worse so that the relief plane can get through tomorrow.

The landing of the Bremen was the biggest event that ever happened here.

Careful examination of the plane has failed to show any weakness from the long flight against violent headwinds and the severe landing.

Free Ohioan in Killing. COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—Elmer E. Jenkins, former city treasurer here, today was free of further prosecution in connection with his confessed killing of Clement Walter, son of the city building inspector, in the city hall here, March 14.

The county grand jury, which reported late yesterday, declared the evidence against Jenkins was not strong enough to warrant an indictment. Jenkins has admitted that he accidentally shot Walter during a scuffle over a pistol after a drinking party in the old city hall.

qualified himself committed themselves to the draft plan.

With Governor Smith as the Democratic nominee, they expect a hard fight to carry New York for the state as well as the national ticket. It is said, and some are none too sure of their districts.

The last previous information from those behind the plan to nominate Mr. Coolidge was that a nucleus of at least 226 votes toward the 545 necessary to nominate were already assured him.

While no recapitulation of figures was given, it was indicated yesterday that this total would be materially increased in the next few weeks. The national convention will sit at Kansas City June 12.

USE TEAR GAS BOMBS AGAINST OHIO MINE MOB

Deputy Sheriffs Disperse 250 at Shaft Near Bridgeport.

STONES THROWN Holdings are Operated Under Union Sanction.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., April 21.—Seventy-five women this afternoon were made prisoners in the Belmont county jail, after they had marched into the institution to protest against the arrest of five alleged ringleaders at a demonstration at the Mutton Hollow mine of the Shadyside Coal company, near Bridgeport.

Protest Arrests. The women arrested this afternoon are said to have been the vanguard of a mob of 300 which left Mutton Hollow about noon to protest against the arrest of the alleged ringleaders at an early morning disturbance at the Mutton Hollow mine.

As the union miners sympathizers approached the outskirts of St. Clairsville, it was reported, they were advised that sheriff's deputies and national guardsmen were guarding the county jail. Most of the women fell out, but about 75 continued the march.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., April 21.—Sheriff's deputies and Ohio National Guardsmen were guarding the Belmont county jail here this afternoon, when reports were received that 300 union miners and sympathizers were enroute in eight motor trucks from Mutton Hollow mine near Bridgeport, to protest against the arrest of five men who were arrested this morning following a disturbance at the mine. The county jail, and the court-house and a hotel across the street from the jail have been garrisoned by officers and deputies armed with rifles and tear gas bombs.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., April 21.—A mob of 250 women and a few men which gathered at the Shadyside Coal company's Mutton Hollow mine, near Bridgeport, early today, was dispersed when Deputy Sheriffs threw two tear gas bombs into the crowd, according to reports received here this morning.

The mob was made up almost entirely of women, reports say, and they attempted to prevent workers from entering the Mutton Hollow mine.

The mine is being operated, under union sanction, with the Jacksonville scale as a wage basis. Many persons in the vicinity, however, are in sympathy with the "Save the Union" movement, whose leader, John Brophy, of Pennsylvania, asserts that miners should not return to work until all operators have agreed to the Jacksonville scale.

Several workers were hit by stones and other missiles thrown by the women but none was seriously hurt, it was reported.

Deputies Threatened. The affair follows a somewhat similar incident last night when deputies and two officers of the Ohio National Guard were threatened by a mob at Mutton Hollow. When the attacking party threw several eggs the deputies returned four tear gas bombs and the crowd broke up.

Sheriff C. C. Hardesty, Col. Dan Caldwell, personal representative of Governor Donahay, and Capt. Ray Noble, of the Ohio National Guard, were present. One of the eggs is said to have narrowly missed Col. Caldwell. Several of the half-dozen deputies are reported to have suffered from the effects of their own tear bombs.

Col. Caldwell, after last night's incident, said that more attempted violence might be expected today and 40 National Guardsmen, camped at the fair grounds here, were held in readiness for an emergency. The militiamen are fully armed and trucks are on hand to rush them to the troubled district if they are summoned.

Thirty-nine persons have been arrested at the Mutton Hollow mine this week and 37 of these held to the county grand jury. About a half-dozen of the prisoners are women.

FORECAST RAIN FOR NEXT WEEK

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—Weather outlook for the period April 23 to 28, inclusive. Ohio Valley: A period of showers about Tuesday and again Friday or Saturday. Cool at the beginning of the week with temperatures mostly above normal thereafter.

Willis Men Confident

Hoover as their first choice for the G. O. P. presidential nomination and James R. Garfield, Mentor, as their second choice. Senator Willis was the first choice of the Willis candidates. For their second choice for the presidential nomination, 34 of the Willis candidates for delegates selected Former Governor Frank O. Lowden, Illinois, while the other 17 divided among U. S. Senators Charles Curtis, Kansas, and James E. Watson, Indiana, and Charles R. Fisher, Wilmington.

Democratic Candidates. The Democratic candidates for delegates-at-large are: Mrs. Bernice S. Pyke, Cleveland, Democratic national committeewoman from Ohio; Mrs. Josephine McGowan, Canton; Robert T. Scott, Cambridge, chairman, Democratic state central committee; William W. Durbin, Kenton, former chairman, Democratic state executive committee; Attorney Thomas J. Duffy, Columbus, former chairman, state industrial committee; Claude Meeker, Columbus, broker; Attorney J. Henry Goeke, Lima, and M. R. Denver, Wilmington.

Supporters of Governor Vile Donahay hope that, after a few complimentary votes are cast for Pomerene at the Democratic national convention, the Ohio delegation will throw its votes to Donahay for the Democratic presidential nomination if it is found that Governor Al Smith, of New York, is unable to win.

Willis Candidates. Willis, candidates for delegates-at-large are: Col. Carmel Thompson, Cleveland, who managed the Willis campaign; U. S. Senator Simon D. Fess, Yellow Springs, who will be temporary chairman at the Kansas City convention and deliver the "key-note" speech; Wilma Sinclair Levan, Steubenville, Republican national committeewoman from Ohio; Attorney Fred W. Warner, Marion, chairman of the Republican state central committee; E. W. Edwards, A. Lee Beatty, both of Cincinnati, and Edward Volkmuth, Bucyrus.

The Hoover candidates for delegates-at-large are: Congressman Theodore E. Burton, Cleveland; Attorney Robert A. Taft, Cincinnati, former speaker of the Ohio house of representatives; State Representative Frank A. Brown, Ross county; Mrs. Hugh Clark, Steubenville; Edward Orton, Jr., Columbus; W. W. Farnsworth, Lucas county, and E. W. Barry, Springfield.

51 Republican Delegates. The Ohio delegation to the Republican national convention will cast 51 votes on roll calls for selection of a presidential candidate while the Buckeye state delegation to the Democratic national convention will cast 48 votes on roll calls, each of the eight Democratic delegates-at-large being allowed only a half vote. The seven Republican delegates-at-large are given one vote each.

The Hoover-Willis campaign, which attracted nationwide attention, started last February. At a meeting here on February 10, the Republican state central committee, by a vote of 19 to 1, endorsed Senator Willis at Ohio's "favorite son" candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. Three days later, Secretary Hoover announced, at Washington, D. C., that competing with the request of a number of Ohio Republicans, he would consent to a campaign in Ohio next Tuesday.

Willis and Hoover state headquarters were opened a few days later. Col. Carmel Thompson and Charles Jones, secretary to Senator Willis, directed the work of organizing the Willis forces. Former Secretary of State Thad H. Brown, Columbus, was aided by Assistant Secretary of Commerce Walter F. Brown in organizing the Hoover supporters.

Initial campaign speeches were delivered by Senator Willis, Congressman Burton formally opened the Hoover speaking campaign with an address at Cleveland March 22.

Senator Died March 30. The nation was shocked by the sudden death of Senator Willis at Sudaware, O., on the night of March 30, just as he was about to deliver an address in connection with a "home-coming celebration."

Former Congressman Ralph D. Cole, Findlay, and other Ohioans delivered addresses on behalf of the Willis candidates.

Anti-Hoover speakers charged among other things that Hoover was not a Republican. That he favored the league of nations, that he was against the best interests of Ohioans when he endorsed Chicago's plans for diverting water from the great lakes, and that, during the World war, he was not in sympathy with the best interests of the farmers.

Speakers supporting Hoover declared that Hoover, of all available presidential candidates, is best qualified for the nomination, that he is a Republican who loyally supports policies of the Coolidge administration, and that Hoover was not an enemy of the farmer.

MIDLAND, Pa., April 21.—Harry Herlinger, who was named superintendent of Midland school at a recent special session of the local board of education, will arrive here July 1 from Indiana, Pa.

Definite announcement of Herlinger's acceptance of the Midland post was made today by G. B. Newcomer, president of the board.

Merit Only Sure Method When Women Want to Win

MRS. RUTH H. McCORMICK MRS. FLORENCE KAHN
(International Illustrated News Staff)

ENTRANCE INTO POLITICS NEEDS MORE THAN GOOD LOOKS

By SHIRLEY KIRKE
(International Illustrated News Staff Correspondent)

If you intend running for a political office, whether Congress or village trustees—and you are a female—keep sex appeal out of your campaign.

That, according to Mrs. Florence Kahn of California, is the moral emanating from the recent Illinois primaries.

"Women should always campaign as persons—not women."

"I have always refused to recognize sex in politics, and I find that both men and women resent any other attitude."

"Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick's smashing victory in Illinois is eloquent testimony to the value of this principle.

"If Mrs. McCormick had appealed for support solely as a woman she probably would have lost."

So that's that, and right from the top of the feminine political ladder! Forget your skirts and sex, and the old last argument used with brothers in tussles, sports and debates: "Well, you ought to win. You are a boy."

Perhaps it will be suggested by some militant suffragette (how ancient that term sounds!) that punishment should be meted out to females who violate this code.

The whole situation is this, since the right of women to mix in politics is definitely recognized, the original suggestion that good looks would win a campaign is now found groundless.

Women are bringing a rare use of intelligence and initiative into their campaigns and into the administration of their duties after election.

Women are making good in politics on their own very good sense, not entirely on their looks.

Sunday School Lesson THE CHRISTIAN FAMILY

Mark 10, 29, 30-36.
2 And there came unto him Pharisees, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? trying him.
3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?
4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorce, and to put her away.
5 But Jesus said unto them, For your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment.
6 But from the beginning of the creation, Male and female made he them.
7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife:
8 And the two shall become one flesh: so that they are no more two, upon them.

but one flesh.
9 What therefore God hath joined together let not man put asunder.
13 And they were bringing unto him little children, that he should touch them: and the disciples rebuked them.
14 But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: for of such belongeth the kingdom of God.
15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.
16 And he took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them.

Spring Finery

By Fanny Darrell.

"April showers bring May flowers"—and how often do they also bring dismay and consternation to feminine hearts? What a sad sight is the little lady who gaily goes forth in her new Spring finery only to be caught in the sudden April shower and get soaked and dripping wet. Oh, dear, oh, dear, if only she had waited and not taken a chance of getting all her lovely things spoiled! But it was so beautiful when she started out and now—well, everything ruined! But is it? Not so badly but that the damage can be repaired, and who cares, anyhow, about spoiled clothes when Spring is actually here with all its joy and happiness and promise of love and beauty? Because, remember "In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love,"—so why worry over a few spoiled fineries?

Goya Masterpiece Found by American in Antique Shop

PARIS.—What is now believed to be a Goya masterpiece was discovered four years ago by an American resident of Paris in a dusty old antique-shop on the Left Bank. She offered a ridiculously low price for the painting because she liked the unusual character of the jeweled headpiece worn by the lady. The shopkeeper accepted it, evidently perfectly unaware of the author of the portrait. Not long ago some critics got busy and inspected it, finding that the portrait had been transferred to a new canvas about a quarter of a century ago and had been restored depriving it of many qualities which it must have possessed. They believe now that the Spanish master undoubtedly painted it during his early period.

GENERAL ELECTRIC Refrigerator

All machinery needs oil—but each General Electric Refrigerator has its own permanent supply. Inside the steel casing there is sealed every bit of the mechanism of this remarkable refrigerator. And, along with the machinery, there is all the oil it will ever need.

This is only one of the many advantages of the General Electric Refrigerator. It has no belts, fans or drain-pipes. It has no mechanism inside, underneath, or in the basement. It is almost as portable as a fan—can be plugged into any convenience outlet. It uses very little current to make all the ice you need and keep the temperature always below the 50° danger point.

You will want to study these unusually quiet, generously roomy, strongly built refrigerators. You are cordially invited to come in. Compare them with all others before you decide. And remember, they are the product of fifteen years of research in the General Electric laboratories—and are guaranteed by General Electric. There is a wide range of models and prices. You will find the one you want among them.

Trinity College Head Says Time Not Ripe To Free Philippines

HARTFORD, Conn.—Dr. Remsen D. Ogilby, president of Trinity college, believes that if the United States granted independence to the Philippines an expeditionary force of troops would have to go out to the islands in three years time to straighten things out.

Dr. Ogilby expresses his opinion after nine years spent in the islands. He sees lack of capital the chief handicap to the island folks and he sees in talk of independence a bugaboo frightening away foreign capital. The islands are rich in natural resources, says the local college president, but its people are poor in material matters. They need capital to secure their wealth of natural sorts.

If the United States departed from the islands, says Dr. Ogilby, the next in control would be an oligarchy in the hands of the Tagalog tribe in the Manila district. Other people, represented in the groups that speak eighty-seven dialects, would be swamped by the oligarchy, and in would rush the Orientals from the main land of Asia.

Ohio's Opportunity

The next president of the United States will be nominated at the Kansas City Republican National Convention. Ohio has the opportunity of helping to nominate that candidate, if an uninstructed delegation is sent to the Convention.

The Willis delegates, if elected, will not be tied to any candidate. They will be an uninstructed delegation, free from any pledge except to the Republican voters of Ohio. They will be as judges to help determine and nominate that Republican who will make the best president for all the people and who will be most certain of election in November. The Willis delegates will have a wealth of qualified material from which to select that candidate, Calvin Coolidge, Charles Evan Hughes, Charles G. Dawes, Frank O. Lowden, Herbert Hoover, Charles Curtis, or some Republican not yet considered. The Hoover delegates are pledged to one candidate, and that is their weakness. If the Willis delegates do not win, will Mrs. Wilma Sinclair LeVan be re-elected a national committeewoman?

High School And College Athletes Crash Ohio Relays Marks

7 Records Topple in 9 Events

Track Stars From Nine States in Finals Today.

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—With seven records broken in the nine events of the first day of the fifth annual Ohio relays yesterday, athletes of nine states were lined up in a sea of mud today to enter the finals of the meet.

High school and elementary track and field stars in the preliminaries and finals in that division, badly shattered the former Ohio relay records in the 120-yard low hurdles, high jump, shot-put, Class B mile relay, 880-yard high school relay, 880-yard junior high relay, 880-yard elementary relay and the quarter mile elementary relay.

The record held by Warne of Kokomo, Ind., at 12 feet five and one-half inches in the pole vault was the only one of the principal events in the first day's program which withstood the assault of the high school vaulters.

Winners of the first three places in the high school shot-put all broke the existing record of 46 feet, one inch held by McMillen, of Bellepoint since 1925. Earl Johnson, prospect athlete, won the event, putting the shot 47 feet, seven inches. Other winners who also shattered the record were Fried of Lakewood, second place, and Dawson and Baumgartner, tied for third.

Three of the participants in the 120-yard low hurdles for high schools, Williams of Columbus East high and Brown of Columbus Central, broke the existing Ohio relay record in the preliminaries of the event held yesterday. Brown who broke the record twice, once in the preliminary heat and again in the semi-finals, made the best time of the runners in that event and bettered the 14.6 seconds record by three seconds.

Barth of Lakewood high and Brame and Ramsey of Dayton Stivers who won first, second and third respectively in the high jump were the only contestants of more than 70 entries who cleared the bar at more than six feet, thereby establishing a new Ohio relay record. Barth sweeping over the bar at six feet, one and three-eighths inches, clipped off two inches of the old mark set by Ramsey and Brame last year. The Dayton jumpers drawing for the second two positions after trying for next best honors, jumped the bar one inch lower than Barth.

Seven of eight teams qualifying for the final race of the high school 880-yard relay today, toppled the record of 1 minute 35.6 seconds in the preliminary heats yesterday.

Canton McKinley Qualifies. The teams in the finals today include St. John's Military academy, Columbus East, Louisville, Ky., Mangel, Lakewood, Toledo, Libby, Louisville, Ky., Male, Pittsburgh, Pa., Peabody. Canton McKinley winning the preliminary less than one second behind the record also qualified.

Berea, University School of Cleveland, Kent, Roosevelt and Rocky River teams all cracked the record of the class B high school mile relay, of the class B high school mile relay, with a time of three minutes, 38.7 seconds, seven seconds less than the former mark.

Peabody of Pittsburgh, Pa., with a time of one minute 39.6 seconds won the 880-yard junior high school relay and lowered the relay record by more than three seconds. Huntington, W. Va., junior high also broke the mark winning second place.

In the elementary quarter mile relay, three teams, Lancaster West, Huntington, W. Va., West and Guyardotte, W. Va., schools, taking first, second and third respectively, set new records in that event. All of the teams dropped the former record of 56.1 seconds by more than two seconds.

High school participants in the 100-yard dash preliminaries of 10 heats and four semi-final races failed to set a new relay mark. The best time was made by Odum of Kokomo, Ind., Bennett of Toledo, Libby and Moxley of Columbus Central who paced the century at 10.2 seconds.

Run Finals Today. These men will be matched with Pittsford, of Cincinnati, Stephens of Parkersburg, W. Va., Parish of Shaker Heights, Criswell of St. John's Military Academy and Cobb of Columbus Central in the finals of the event this afternoon.

Following their victories in the preliminary and semi-final heats yesterday the athletes who will take part in the finals of the 120-yard low hurdles this afternoon are: Williams and Keller of Columbus East, Brown and Daniels of Columbus Central, Haeft and Elliott of Lakewood, Parish of Shaker Heights, Kipler of St. John's Military Academy and Calloway of Huntington, W. Va.

Finals in all of the college and the remaining high school events will take place at the stadium this afternoon. Preliminaries in the college division were held this morning.

Two special invitation events in which leading stars and Olympic contenders of the country will take part will be features of the meet today. Ray Conger, holder of the indoor world's record 1,000-yard run, who was defeated in an exhibition match by Herman Phillips, inter-collegiate 440-yard champion, in the 880-yard run yesterday will appear in one of the specials, a mile invitation heat, this afternoon.

TWELVE CLUBS SEEK BERTHS IN RECREATION LOOP

Ray's Epic Effort in Boston Run Arouses Olympic Hopes

By Davis J. Walsh.
NEW YORK, April 21.—Will Joe Ray, in committing to posterity the final chapter of his competitive life, follow the spike-etched climax achieved by Hannes Kolehmainen, that great runner of the preceding generation? To answer the question in the affirmative, Ray will have to win the marathon at the Olympic games, and Secretary Dan Ferris and other A. A. U. officials, returning from the scene of the Boston marathon, today not only felt that he could but that he very well might.

Ferris and the rest of them still were under the spell of Ray's epic effort. Few spectacles have been more dramatic than was Joe's struggle to the finish, his unseeing eyes blurred with pain, his lips blackened, his feet an agony of blisters. Thus, the penalty of playing another man's game, a concession that so many of us have to make to the advancing years.

It was not so less than a half dozen years ago. Then Joe Ray was one of the great mile runners of the world and those who raced him played his game and none other. He was an autocrat in his own particular domain and he won his races with a half-smile of contempt for those who would say him nay. Ray was the pampered thoroughbred then; now, in order to merit consideration, he must bow his head to the yoke and pull doggedly with the work horses.

The war served to prevent Kolehmainen from creating an Olympic record probably as great as Nurmi's. The former, in fact, was greater at Stockholm in 1912 than Nurmi was at Antwerp in 1920 and it was necessary for Paavo to do all he did at Paris in 1924 to replace Kolehmainen altogether in the esteem of his countrymen. What "Koley" might have accomplished in 1916, if the war hadn't intervened, is a matter for speculation only.

Four years later, his speed was gone and he did what Ray is attempting to do today. He joined the "suicide brigade," made up of hardy souls who find the first thirty miles the hardest, and in the Olympic marathon at Antwerp, he beat them at their own game. Accepting his Boston debut at face value, no one can say that Joe Ray won't be able to repeat "Koley's" performance when and if he gets to Amsterdam.

Six Times Winner

Clarence De Mar (above), "Old Reliable," makes a new record for the Boston marathon against the pick of the country's runners, with Joe Ray running second. This is De Mar's sixth victory in the annual event.

Fowler Issues Practice Call For Turk Nash

Motors to Hold First Workout on Monday.

Turk Nash City Industrial League club, last of the six in the local circuit to begin practice, will hold its first workout on Monday evening at 6 o'clock at Patterson field, the call being issued today by Manager John Fowler.

Fowler requests that all of last year's players, including Eddie Baylie, Alf Baylie, Pollock, Earl Mundy, Bill Mundy, Schmiedmiller, Maley, Desher, Morris, McMath, Watson, Sainor, Aufderheide and any new men report for the workout.

The Turk Nash club is scheduled to open the 1928 campaign on its home lot, Patterson field, against Frank Riley's Chester squad.

It is likely that in addition to the regulars of last season there will be a number of new prospects for the motors who have been awaiting the practice call.

High Trackers Set Dates for Spring Meets

Book Wellsville Squad Here Next Saturday.

HANDICAPPED by snow, rain, frost and weather conditions which in general have been anything but favorable to track and field performances, East Liverpool high school athletes will attempt to get in some outdoor practice next week in preparation for actual competition.

The Blue and White trackers have three meets in a row, on consecutive Saturdays, beginning next week.

On next Saturday they will face the Wellsville high school squad in a dual session at Columbian park. On the following Saturday their customary interclass events are billed and on May 12 they will go to Salem for the county competition.

The try-out contests among class squads were originally scheduled for this week but poor weather conditions compelled a postponement.

In the event that it is impossible, on account of rain or other inauspicious occurrences, to hold the dual meet with Wellsville next Saturday, it will be postponed a week, and the class games will go by the boards, according to plans as they stand now.

SENDS PITCHER TO NEW ORLEANS

CLEVELAND, April 21.—Manager Roger Peckinpaugh of the Cleveland American League Baseball club has ordered Verne Underhill, youthful right-handed pitcher, to the New Orleans club of the Southern Association for more seasoning. It was learned today, Underhill, who showed much promise during the training season, may be recalled at the end of this year, it was said.

Daddy Speaker, Grandpa Cobb Beat Chesty Yanks in Ninth

Ty's Triple and Tris' Sacrifice Give Macks 2-1 Win in Home Inaugural; Bucs Lose Four Straight to Cards.

By Les Conklin.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Thanks to Daddy Speaker and Grandpa Cobb, the Philadelphia Athletics at last have broken into the winning column and Connie Mack is again full of optimism. Cobb's triple and Ty's sacrifice fly in the ninth gave the A's a 2 to 1 triumph over the Yankees yesterday.

The Mackmen picked a sweet spot for their first victory of the season. It was the home inaugural of the Yanks and a goodly crowd of 50,000 was there. The losing pitcher was Cy Moore, who with George Pipgras opposed Lefty Grove.

Another old timer who jumped into the spotlight was Eppa Rixey, Cincinnati southpaw. He held the slugging Cubs to four hits and blanked them 6 to 0.

Flaming youth's contribution was made by Paul Easterling, Detroit's sensational rookie from Seattle. He clouted his third home run in three days as the Tigers whitewashed the Browns, 3 to 0.

Each of the three leaders in the American League, Cleveland, New York and Washington, lost yesterday. Al Thomas, who has accounted for two of Chicago's three victories, pitched the White Sox to an 11 to 1 triumph over Cleveland. The Red Sox nosed out Washington, 6 to 5.

Pittsburgh has lost four straight to St. Louis. The Cardinals trimmed the Bucs again yesterday by a 6 to 2 score. Roscoe Holm collected five hits in five times at bat. George Grantham, who is leading the league's hitters with the juicy average of .600, contributed his second homer.

Bissonette, Brooklyn recruit, drove in four runs, as the Robins took an 8 to 6 slugfest from the Phillies.

MIDLAND TRACK SQUAD TO DRILL

MIDLAND, Pa., April 21.—Call for cinder track athletes to report for practice Monday afternoon went out today from the office of Coach W. P. Lomond, who hopes to develop a cinder team worth entering in the county meet at Beaver next month. In past years the Steel City harrers have managed to cop off a few of the honors awarded at the big meeting in May. Entries probably will be made in the hundred yard, two-hundred, mile and half mile, pole vault and javelin events at Beaver, according to the Blue and Gold mentor.

New Entries Lining up for 1928 Campaign

Final Organization Meet Scheduled for Tuesday.

Preliminary steps in the reorganization of the Review recreation league for the season of 1928 were taken at a meeting of managers last night at the newspaper office.

Representatives of 12 clubs attended the session, including five new prospective entries while two other clubs, contenders last year, appeared under new names.

The prospects to date include: Heimles, O. E. Greenwalt; Johannes Drugs, C. W. Smith; Smith News, Neil Canavan; Workingmen's Store, Mort Grollman; Y. M. C. A. T. F. Scheffer; Golden's Flowers, Donald Golden; American Billiards, Sylvester Holt; Columbian Squires, Eddie Gill; Grand Billiards, George Boyd; Brian Clothiers, N. F. Lora; Club Billiards, Charles Kidd, and the American Sheet and Tin Plate Plant, Chester, W. E. Gillespie.

The Club Billiards are the 1927 Roselawns, and the Golden Flowers have taken over the franchise of the Newell Laughlin squad.

The Laughlin players will confine their activities this year to a strictly all-Laughlin league of probably six clubs.

Franchises formerly held by the Printers, The Ohio Power and the Bulger Drugs will be vacated in favor of the new teams.

Final organization meeting will be held on next Tuesday night when entry fees of $15 will be filed with the league secretary. At this meeting also any other clubs desiring to enter must be ready to file their fee. This fee, it is explained, is used solely for the purpose of paying umpires and the purchase possibly of several sets of bases.

Dickey Books Workout Tilt For Laughlin

Will Clash With Pearl Dailey's Pickup Squad.

Pearl Dailey, manager of last year's Newell Laughlin club, is lining up a ball club at the pottery plant to challenge Joe Dickey's City League entry. The date for the game has been set for Friday, April 27.

Dailey's outfit has been selected from his gang of workmen at plants 6 and 7, among whom will be Randall, catcher; P. Dudgeon and McAllister, pitchers; K. Stanley, second; Foster, first; McPherson, second; A. Scott, third; Cal Wagner, left; Smith, center; McCune, right; Mosser, center; Collins, Stewart, Cooper and Dailey, reserves.

Of course, Dailey will be using some of the players who probably will appear with the Laughlin league club this season.

This last Mosser, by the way, has been wielding a potent bat in the few practice sessions that the West Virginia Pottery have held to date. He has developed the habit of crashing baseballs out beyond the street car tracks in left field. Whether he could do the same thing against regular league pitching is something else, but in all likelihood he will probably get a chance at it.

Stolen Idols

A Romance of the Sea
By Frank L. Packard.

"Not on your—hic!—life!" said Bob Kingsley with a sickly smile. "I'm not going back there tonight! I told you that before, and I'll tell you why now. I dropped that idol like a fool on the roulette table with handful of money that I was going to bet, and Won Fu saw it. I might have been drunk, and maybe I am yet, but I wasn't drunk enough not to see Won Fu beating it for the door, though I don't think he knew that I had seen him in the place at all. He'll be back there after me with the gang at his heels as soon as he can get them together. I'm looking for them all right—but not like that!"

"Hell!" snorted Java Dick contemptuously. "I'd like to see 'em start anything in my place! You come on back."

"Not—hic!—for mine!" said Bob Kingsley doggedly. "You want a free for all, with the police busting in and raiding you?"

Java Dick scratched thoughtfully at his head again. "Well, maybe you're right," he agreed; and then, with a puzzled frown: "It's a bit queer you running into me with this stuff about Chen-shu. You've asked a lot of questions. I'm going to ask one. D'ye know a man named Mindar Singh?"

Bob Kingsley stared at Java Dick—and then pushed his cap excitedly back on his head. "He was my uncle's servant in Kalawa—there the night—hic!—the junk came. What do you know about him?"

Java Dick chuckled.

"I don't know anything about him or anything about any of the rest of this business, except that Chen-shu seems to be out of luck all around tonight. It hit me between the peepers after you got talking that this here Mindar Singh chap might have something to do with it. All I know is that was the reason Chen-shu was in my place tonight. I couldn't make out the rights of it, but this Mindar Singh seemed to have run away, or got away from Chen-shu, or something—and, from what he said, God help Mr. Singh if Chen-shu ever gets his claws on him again! Won Fu, from the way I got it, was left to keep a look out for the fellow, and Chen-shu started off to picket all the rest of the joints like mine where he thought there might be a chance of the man showing up."

"My word!" gasped Bob Kingsley eagerly. "I—hic!—I'd give a good deal to see Mindar Singh. The beggar hasn't been heard of since that night at Kalawa. Thought he was dead! I say, Java—his voice was lowered again—tip me off if you hear anything more about him, eh?"

Java Dick smiled dubiously. "Where are you going to be? Where'd I find you?" he demanded.

"I'll be on the Alita—she's at anchor out there in the harbor," Bob Kingsley replied. "Come now, Java—give me a leg up, won't you?"

"I've got my own kin to think of!" Java Dick grunted—and then he grinned amiably. "All right," he agreed. "Chen-shu's no friend of mine, and I'll see what I can find out for you; but—the smile vanished suddenly in a menacing twist of the lips—"so help me God, Black Bob, if you let me down I'll turn something loose on you that "You needn't say it!" said Bob Kingsley, in an almost sobered voice. "That's good enough for me!" He put out his hand. "Shake!" And then, his fingers tingling with the grip he received in return, for the strength in the dwarf-like creature's hands was like that of two men; "Good-night, Java! I'm not going to forget this!"

"That's all right, Black Bob," Java Dick answered easily. "Maybe some day you'll do something for me. Good-night!"

The black shadows of the alleyway hid Java Dick—and clattering presently into a jinkieshaw, Bob Kingsley ordered the coolie to take him to the waterfront.

CHAPTER 41.

Bob Kingsley sat up in his bunk; and, though aroused out of a sound slumber, was instantly alert. It could not have been more than an hour since he had returned to the schooner from Java Dick's, and, after giving orders to Nannu that a strict watch be kept, had gone to bed—and now Nannu was calling from the officer's cabin.

"Yes! What is it, Nannu?" he demanded.

"It was the Tuan's orders that he be called if anything happened," Nannu answered. "There is a man who has come out from shore alone in a boat, and who asks for speech with the Tuan. If his words are true, he was the servant of the Tuan's uncle at Kalawa, and his name is Mindar Singh. Is it the Tuan's orders that he come aboard?"

Mindar Singh! Bob Kingsley leaped from his bunk to his feet; and then, jerking aside the curtain, which, for greater comfort's sake in the heat of the tropics, fulfilled the functions of a door to the single stateroom that the Alita possessed, he stepped out into the main cabin.

"Light the lamp, Nannu!" he ordered tersely. "And then bring the man down here at once!"

Nannu lighted the swinging lamp over the table and departed.

Bob Kingsley crossed the cabin to a stand of drawers, procured a package of cigarettes, lighted one, thrust the package into his pajamas' pocket, and flung himself down into a chair beside the table facing the companion-way. Outwardly calm, his blood was running hot with excitement. Mindar Singh! What was it Java Dick had said? That Mindar Singh had run away, or got away from Chen-shu, or something—and that, as Java Dick had gathered, it would go very ill indeed with Mindar Singh if Chen-shu ever got his claws on the man again? What was at the bottom of that? What was the meaning of it? Java Dick had not known. He, Bob Kingsley, did not know. But it promised a great deal! And then, besides, here at last was the only man who might probably be able to give some coherent account of what had actually happened that night when Hsi Yan had gone ashore at Kalawa.

He, Bob Kingsley, had talked with Crowley two days ago in Kalawa. Crowley still knew nothing more than he had set down in the letter he had sent to Patua. They had discussed Mindar Singh's mysterious disappearance from all angles, even down to the man's personality and habits, in the hope that they might thereby obtain some clew to what might have taken place—but at the end had been no further advanced than when they had begun. And then a possible solution had occurred to him. Crowley did not know about that secret passage built for self-protection long ago in the more lawless days when "Toe Kingsley" had lived practically alone on Kalawa. There was a bare chance that Mindar Singh might be in there—dead. They had gone to the house and examined the passage; but it was quite empty, and they had been obliged to fall back again upon useless speculation. As a matter of fact, until a few hours ago when Java Dick had spoken of the man, he, Bob Kingsley, had come to the conclusion that Mindar Singh was dead. As it was now, it was more likely that the reason for the man's disappearance was—But why speculate again! Crowley said Mindar Singh spoke English readily from his years of house service—and here was the man to answer for himself.

Bob Kingsley straightened up in his chair, as a tall, gaunt figure, that of an East Indian in a ragged turban, his clothing soiled and torn, came down the companion-way, and, halting before him, made a profound obeisance.

"Sahib," the man said earnestly, "I am Mindar Singh, who was the servant of the Sahib's uncle, Kingsley Sahib. I have suffered evil things for many days since the night Hsi Yan brought destruction upon my master's house, and even now I am in a great danger, and I have come to the Sahib for shelter. Is it in the Sahib's mind that what I say is true, for his eyes have never seen my face before?"

Bob Kingsley jumped to his feet, and laid his hand impulsively on the other's shoulder.

"You're Mindar Singh, all right!" he said heartily. "I'd know you anywhere from Mr. Crowley's description. And if it's shelter from Chen-shu you're talking about—and from what I've heard tonight I fancy there's no doubt on that score—you've come to the right place to get it!"

Mindar Singh inclined his head.

DENIES SHE WANTED MILLIONS

Mrs. Doris Mercer Kresge (above), wife of Sebastian Kresge, the multi-millionaire chain store owner, vehemently denies her husband's divorce suit allegations that she demanded $10,000,000 to bear him a child. "I will sail for Europe and try to forget I was ever his wife," said Mrs. Kresge.

ANNIE LAURIE'S
TIMELY ADVICE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I have often wondered how to become popular with boys. I can do most anything in the line of indoor and outdoor sports. I dance, sing and do so many other things. I have gone with many girls who are popular and "pet."

Do I have to "pet" to become popular?

I WONDER: If you are interesting and congenial as well as accomplished in sports, I do not see why you should need to be concerned about your popularity. If you cultivate and enlarge upon your natural talents and make yourself mentally as well as physically attractive, you should be very much sought after. Do not consider petting as a means to popularity for I assure you my dear, whatever attractiveness you might temporarily acquire by indulging in this casual and unfortunate practice would be superficial and of short duration. Yielding to this practice would ultimately cause you to lose the respect of your friends, and what is more important, your own good opinion of yourself!

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl in my teens and I have been going with two different boys. I like them both immensely. One tells me he cares for me and has asked me not to keep company with the other boy. The other boy, tells me the same thing. My parents do not object to me going with either of the boys. What shall I do? ANNE.

ANNE: Since it is obvious that you are in love with neither of these boys or you would not be undecided as to which one to choose, I would suggest that you explain to each in turn that you see no necessity for limiting your friendship in the way they suggest. I see no reason why you cannot retain the friendship of both boys if you eliminate the consideration of "keeping company" with either of them. And this I strongly advise you to do. You are too young to consider either of these boys seriously, my dear, and I advise you to continue your friendship with them but explain that you feel no necessity to choose between them.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl in my late teens and am engaged to a young man two years my senior. He holds a well-paying position and saves his money. He never hesitates to assure me of his love for me, but he is jealous of me. If I talk to another boy friend of mine he always accuses me of flirting. What would you advise me to do? ANXIOUS RAPE.

ANXIOUS RAPE: Have a talk with your fiancé, my dear, and make him realize how absurd his jealousy is. I suggest you try to make him curb his jealous confessions as quickly and completely as possible, as his constant accusations will cause you much unnecessary unhappiness. Since you are engaged to be married, he must realize that you love him and that he has no cause to doubt it. If you meet his accusations with understanding and patience and explain how groundless his suspicions are, you may succeed in talking him out of his jealousy.

Five Pennsylvanians

VICTORY FOR U. S.

Five Other Men and One

Released.

CLEVELAND, April 21. — United States District Attorney A. E. Bernstein today had scored a partial victory in his attempts to wreck an alleged beer-smuggling "trust" operating between Pennsylvania and mid-western cities.

Five of eleven Pennsylvanians, included in federal indictments, charging conspiracy to violate the prohibition law returned here over a year ago, have been ordered extradited to Cleveland from the Keystone state for trial, according to information on file in Bernstein's office.

The five ordered extradited by Judge V. B. Wooley of the U. S. circuit court of appeals at Philadelphia are: William A. Quinn, William V. Longbrun and Lester Lord, Jr., Scranton; James A. Jordan, proprietor of the Castanea Ice and Beverage company, Lock Haven, Pa., and Jacob Mayer, former brewmaster of the Anthelette Brewing company of Scranton.

Patrick McGowan, of the Bartels brewery, Edwinstown, Pa.; Karl Bosert and W. F. McHugh, his managers; George I. Purcell and J. J. Dooley, Lackawanna railroad employees, and Mary L. Anderson, Scranton, only woman named in the case, were ordered released by Judge Wooley.

OUTSELLING ALL SIXES World's greatest value by this Nationwide Verdict

In all 6-cylinder history there has never been such spectacular acceptance of any car as that which everywhere greets the new Essex Super-Six. It is outselling all other "Sixes", and its own previous records, by such outstanding margins as to leave no doubt of its leadership.

In some places its sales excel its former mark by 100%, 200% and even 300%. In Detroit, for instance, where automobile values are understood better than anywhere in the world, Essex sales have been greater than the next three "Sixes" combined.

Such success can only reflect an accurate and unmistakable public appreciation that Essex is the World's Greatest Value—Altogether or Part by Part—Please Compare.
